FOND FAREWELL TO GREG

Another member of staff is leaving us to move on to pastures new! PCSO 5952 Greg Downs has followed in the footsteps of some of our colleagues and passed all the required assessments to start his training to become a Police Constable. He starts his new posting in early January so may we take a brief moment to thank Greg for all his hard work and effort for the past 5 years. He spent the first three and a half years based in Sturminster Newton before moving a little further south for a new challenge. That said, he quickly returned to his old patch to help cover some staffing shortages at the time, having to wait a further nine months to start working at Blandford in earnest. The long process of applying to become a constable however, took its course and Greg is looking forward to fulfilling his ambitions and plying his trade as a response officer. We wish Greg the very best of luck in his future endeavours and look forward to seeing him perform his duties that we are sure he will be more than capable of doing.

WINTER DRIVING

We will keep this information going at the forefront of everyone's mind, such is the importance of us all staying safe on our roads. The winter weather is here and we would like to remind you all to check the tyres on your car regularly to make sure they have sufficient tread and are inflated to the correct pressure. The legal limit for the depth of car tyre tread is a minimum of 1.6mm and the correct tyre pressure can be found in your vehicles handbook. We would also like to remind you all to check the lights on your car regularly to make sure they are all working. Regularly on our patrols, we see vehicles travelling with only one headlight or we follow vehicles with brake lights not working. If this is the case you are liable to be pulled over and delayed on your journey, you could potentially cause an accident, or be subject of a fine of £100 and 3 penalty points on your licence or more!

It is also an offence for number plates to be obscured in any way, even by mud so please make every effort to ensure they are clean. Thank you.

CRIME PREVENTION

Please be aware of putting lots of valuables out on display over the festive period. We want the gifts you give and receive to stay yours, not a thieves'!
